LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

VOL. I. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 26, 1882. NO. 149.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

C. D. Poston Shoots at the Editor of the Tucson "Citizen."

The Seven Chinese Women Illegally Transported Discharged—The Independents.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

TUCSON, May 25.—A recent number of the Daily Citizen published certain letters of C. D. Poston, and criticised him somewhat sharply. This morning Poston met J. A. Whitmore, editor of the Citizen, at Porter's hotel, and without saying a word drew a revolver and fired at Whitmore, missing him. Poston has been arrested and will be placed under bonds. The Citizen will to-day denounce him as a cowardly assassin and bully.

A STEAMER ON FIRE.

PORTLAND, Oregon, May 25.—This morning a cargo of three thousand barrels of lime on board the steamer Yoquina caught fire. The vessel will doubtless have to be scuttled. It is thought the steamer will be a total loss. She is new and the loss is estimated at $35,000. No insurance on the vessel or cargo.

INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE.

In the United States Circuit Court to-day, Judge Sawyer discharged from custody the seven Chinese women who came from Hong Kong on the steamer Glamis Castle. The women were arrested for violation of the law which prohibits the importation of females for immoral purposes. Judge Sawyer discharged them on the ground that there was not sufficient evidence produced to show that the women are prostitutes or were imported for the purpose of prostitution.

THE CHINA STEAMER.

Three new cases of small-pox were reported yesterday on the steamer Altonower. All small-pox patients have been removed from this steamer to the hospital, the consignees having agreed to pay all the expenses of removal and care. A careful inspection of the steamer Strathairlie discloses the fact that she has on board about 1,000 passengers instead of 814, as was at first reported. As soon as the steamer is out of quarantine, a measurement will be made by the Custom House officials and it will be ascertained if the passenger act has been violated. No cases have been reported on the Strathairlie, and most of the passengers have been vaccinated.

HORSE-THIEF LYNCHED.

A Walla Walla dispatch says that Andy Neal, a horse-thief and generally disreputable character, was hanged by vigilantes near Rockford last Monday.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Calkins' Arctic Scheme Sat Down Upon in the House.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The House Committee on Naval Affairs yesterday unceremoniously sat down upon Calkins' scheme to start another expedition to the North Pole. The Committee took the broad ground that science had not benefited by any of these expeditions, all of which cost a great deal of money. A member of the committee said to the Chronicle correspondent that if naval officers wanted to commit suicide he thought other means should be provided than by starting out these cruel and useless expeditions. He said the prime mover in and author of the Calkins bill is a naval officer who had no Arctic experience whatever, but had been around this city for nearly two years, the greater portion of which time he was under the influence of liquor. He said the Navy Department knew this, and consequently had not assigned him to any duty, and that he struck upon this Arctic expedition as something to do, though he did not propose to start, even if it were adopted, for a year yet.

APPOINTMENTS.

Pay Inspector Joseph A. Smith will be appointed Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, with the rank and pay of Paymaster General of the Navy. Vice Admiral A. C. Rowan will be appointed Superintendent of the Navy observatory, vice Rear Admiral Rodgers, deceased.

SENATE CONFIRMATION.

William H. Brown has been confirmed as Surveyor General of California.

CALIFORNIA INVENTORS.

Patents have been granted to residents of California as follows: William L. Blythe, Mokelumne Hill, pick; George Brammer and J. R. Sevarts, Livermore, device forming shoulders upon vehicle axles; Andrew Jackson, San Francisco, dental plugger; Milton H. Sanders, San Francisco, railway car; Harry R. Stevens, Los Angeles, wind engine; Isaac F. Templeton, Amador, ore feeder for stamp mills; Sylvester M. Williams, San Francisco, collar button and cravat fastener.

The Independent Platform.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—The Committee on Platform of the Independent Republican Convention reported resolutions declaring in strong terms against the spoils system; denounced the boss rule in politics; declared their attachment to the principles of the Republican party; declared the nomination and election of Jas. A. Garfield a triumph of true reform; civil service reform is demanded in place of the spoil system; the reformation of the civil service by law is demanded instead of prostituting the public service to private uses; insists on the recognition of office as a high and honorable trust to be administered for the people's benefit with efficiency, economy and integrity; demands, instead of the insolence, proscription and tyranny of bossism and the machine in politics to free and conscientious exercise of private judgment in political affairs and the faithful discharge by those who assume representative trusts of the expressed will of the people.

Sen. Hill's Health.

EUREKA SPRINGS (Ark.), May 25.—The health of Senator Benjamin Hill is much improved, and there is a strong hope of a cure.

NEW YORK NOTES.

A Shaking up of Federal Officers Expected.

NEW YORK, May 25.—It is rumored that there will be a general shaking up of the Federal officers in the State. Lukewarm stalwarts are uneasy.

San Francisco ladies are visiting Castle Garden on the arrival of immigrants to obtain servants in lieu of the Chinese.

GENERAL CURTIS IN LIMBO.

The jury in the case of General Curtis, special Treasury agent, rendered a verdict of guilty on the first and eighth counts, which charged defendant with receiving, while in the employ of the United States, money or other things of value for political purposes. A motion in arrest of judgment was made, and June second set for the argument.

THE JAMES GANG.

NEW YORK, May 25.—It has been ascertained from a member of Governor Crittenden's party in this city that on his return to Missouri he will conclude negotiations for the surrender of Frank James, and possibly other members of the James gang, and thus put an end to the organization of brigands in Missouri. Frank James is now in Jackson county, and instead of meditating more mischief is represented as being anxious to make the best terms possible for himself. Gov. Crittenden is fully informed as to his whereabouts and means to have him in custody inside of ten days. It is asserted that the whole of the James gang will be broken up. The plans are all laid, and only await the Governor's return for execution.

Independent Republican Ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—The Independent Republican Convention made the following further nominations last night: For Lieutenant-Governor, Levi Bard Duff, of Allegheny; for Secretary of Internal affairs, Major Merric, of Toga; for Congressman at large, Col. Wm. McShaels; for Judge of the Supreme Court, Geo. Junken. After speeches from the candidates the convention adjourned sine die.

Killed by a Fall.

CHICAGO, May 25.—A number of Swedish carpenters, working on the coal shed at the corner of Erie and Robert street this morning, fell from the scaffold to the ground, 25 feet. One was killed outright, one fatally, and two badly hurt.

Temperance Pronunciamento.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 25.—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars of the World has pronounced strongly in favor of total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the State.

Condition of the Overflowed.

LITTLE ROCK, May 25.—General Mangum, the State agent for the distribution of supplies on the Arkansas side of the Mississippi river during the late overflow, writes to Governor Churchill that the second overflow was nearly as disastrous as the first. The negroes are without the means of obtaining the necessities of life. If the Government does not feed them until they can get work, many of them will starve.

The Epsom Races.

LONDON, May 25.—At the Epsom today the race for the Royal Stakes was won by Limestone, Silver Bill second, Passaic third. Eleven horses ran.

The Jewish Troubles.

VIENNA, May 25.—Four hundred houses belonging to Jews were recently burned at Vasilishki. The agrarian agitation in the Baltic provinces is increasing. The peasants in Parnu have now revolted.

NEWS ITEMS.

Claim jumping has commenced in Wood River, Idaho.

St. Louis has instituted a war against the gambling fraternity.

Four attempts were made to burn the Louisville Daily World Sunday night.

Finnegan, the man arrested at New York recently suspected of being concerned in the Phœnix Park murders, was discharged.

The Dundee whaler Hope is being fitted out to go in search of the Leigh Smith Arctic expedition. Sir Allen Young will command.

George H. Geinghry, the beast who attempted to rape his daughter and shot her because she resisted, has been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment by Judge Belden at San Jose.

Reports from Kansas say the season is an exceptionally favorable one, and growing wheat is in unusually good condition promising a large yield. The acreage of corn is very large.

Chicago is crying out against the cable roads which were recently introduced there, claiming that they are unsafe and dangerous. The same roads in San Francisco seem to have perfect immunity from accident.

Judge Laughlin, of Chicago, declared the gambling law under which they have been acting unconstitutional. S. M. Waterloo, editor of the Evening Chronicle, intimated that undue influences caused the Judge's decision and Laughlin calls for a retraction or blood.

An Apache Indian in Court.

"I arrested this man for drunkenness and for whooping through the streets," said Officer Seamen of Fifteenth precinct, as he presented a copper-colored young man to Justice Patterson at the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday morning.

"Are you an 'Injun'?" asked the magistrate.

"Yes, sir," responded the prisoner, who gave his name as John Holliday.

"What tribe do you belong to?"

"To the Apaches."

"Do they live down on Long Island?" asked the Judge.

"No, sir," politely replied the prisoner; "in the Far West. I was brought here by General Ingalls, and have been in his employ. I was never arrested before, and it is not often that I get drunk."

"Well," said the magistrate, "Indians all seem to love 'fire-water;' you can go this time."—N. Y. Tribune.

TOMBSTONE CONFLAGRATION.

The telegraph brings us the sad intelligence that much of the business portion of Tombstone is in ruins from a fire which prevailed there yesterday afternoon. From the want of engines or other appliances with which to fight the destructive element, that place was liable to a burn-down at any time whenever a little blaze might be caught by the terrific winds that frequently sweep through its streets. Hitherto its water supply has been very meagre, and altogether too light to meet the requirements of a conflagration. But it was recently announced that pipes had been laid to bring in an adequate supply of water from the Huachuca Mountains, twenty-five miles distant, and it is presumed the water has not yet been turned on. Of the burnt section most of the buildings were adobe walls, with wooden roofs and verandas, but there were many wooden structures sandwiched in between the adobes, and at this season they are as dry as a tinder-box—just in good condition to burn with rapidity.

There were many of our former and present citizens in Tombstone liable to be sufferers by the fire, and the first announcement of it caused a general excitement. The telegraph office was visited by many people to get particulars, which came in slowly, as the office at Tombstone was cleaned out by the conflagration, but got to work some time during the evening. Of our citizens known to be losers are Mr. Laventhal and Messrs. Dillon & Kenealy, and E. Martin & Co. Wm. Pridham, Esq., received a message from his brother George to the effect that he was safe, but the fire burned all around him. Our telegraphic columns contain all other information we are in possession of.

OPPORTUNITIES TO INVEST.

From our standpoint of observation the opportunities for the investment of money in large amounts hereabouts are numerous, and in view of the certain appreciation of property and growth of the country, they are unsurpassed. And we are not at all surprised at the avidity with which speculators are beginning to search for and purchase or bond our properties. And in justice to our friends who may have means to spare, we feel we should admonish them to watch and take advantage of present values in the certain prospect of great future gains.

Probably the best investments are the lands now held at nominal figures. And we would not discriminate as to what variety can be looked upon as the most valuable. At present the preference appears to be given to those considered the most valuable for orange orchards and vineyards, but it may be questioned if lands suitable for corn and alfalfa fields, taken at their present standard of worth, have not greater speculative values. As population in Southern California and the adjacent territories increases, so will increase the demand for food, and food the people must have. It is well proven that people can exists without the product of the vine, or the fruits of the orchard, but bread must be had, and beef and pork are also nearly indispensible. Now our butchers are scouring the country for beef to fill present limited orders, from which fact the future value of grass lands may be conjectured. No enterprise promises better than the cultivation of alfalfa on a large scale on which to grow pork, mutton and beef for the shambles. This interest appears to be overlooked by most of our newcomers, who appear to be captivated by our pomological displays. This is well, but the time will come when the man with his five hundred-acre alfalfa field will be looked upon with as much envy as is now the man of the big orchard or the wine-house. Another splendid opportunity for capital is the procurement and the distribution of water. This country needs water, and the day will probably never come when, as a rule, the orchard, the garden and the vineyard can be successfully worked on the annual amount of rainfall, so that as water will always be in demand, he who provides it in quantity required, will be sure of a market. The water is obtainable by extensive wells, artesians, or by catching the winter rainfall in suitable reservoirs in the canyons in which the rivers head-water that now runs to waste.

We could mention many enterprises that invite capital, but those we have named are prominent and most to be desired to assist development of the country. Those capitalists who take advantage of the present low prices of land and invest in either of the enterprises we suggest, cannot fail to reap a rich harvest in the near f-

THE AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

Elsewhere appears a communication from Mr. F J Barretto, President of the Sixth District Agricultural Association, in reply to an article which appeared in the TIMES some weeks since. Mr. Barretto's arraignment of the people of Los Angeles for lack of interest is rather severe, but it is apparently well backed by the figures he gives of the receipts and expenditures of the last season's fair, which makes a lamentable showing, and but for State aid would have left the directory in bad condition. In explanation, however, we deem it but just to state that last season Los Angeles enjoyed a plethora of fairs—the season producing three, one of which was the citrus fair, the next one by the Southern California Horticultural Society, and the third the Agricultural Association's. The fact of the latter closely following the Horticultural fair, which was popularized by introducing the Centennial exhibition, in which all of our people were interested, and which was a grand success from all points of view, is sufficient to show why it was not well attended. Then, too, the agricultural fairs previously held had partaken largely of the character of a horse race, and had not taken strong hold upon the popular chord. Now the circumstances are changed. It is demonstrated that the Agricultural Association can give us a good fair; they will have the entire field without having to divide the profits; and the unwonted prosperity of the country would indicate that every prospect is more favorable than has been hitherto, With one fair successful of the three last year, it would seem to us that with one fair properly managed, as it would be under Mr. Barretto's direction, it could be made a grand success. And now we appeal to the citizens that they see that sufficient encouragement is given the directors to insure the holding of a fair this fall. Mr. Barretto informs us that there is not a member of the board that has ever desired to have the fair held elsewhere than here, but have only considered propositions made, as was their duty as directors. Mr. Barretto further stated that he was willing to do as much as any man in Los Angeles to have the fair held and to insure its success, which goes to prove his disinterestedness, as he is not a resident of the city, and cannot expect to realize any personal benefit, such as would accrue to residents.

AMERICAN PETROLEUM IN THE ORIENT.

The increased consumption of American petroleum in the countries of the East is an encouraging fact for our producers. The United States Consul at Hankow, China, notes the extension of the use of burning fluids in the interior of the empire, and especially of kerosene. He says its rapid adoption is quite remarkable. Hundreds of retailers in the large cities supply it, and its use is quite general. The testimony of missionaries who have penetrated far into the interior is to the effect that the oleaginous fluid has lubricated the wheels of progress in even the most exclusive districts. The province of Honan is noted for its hostility to foreigners and everything connected with them, and yet kerosene has penetrated there, where it is much used for lights, and pedlers take it about in buckets, retailing it by cries, in any quantity demanded, from a single gill upward! A constantly increasing demand is the result. The amount imported into the single city of Hankow for the first six months of the year 1879 was 77,770 gallons. For the same period of 1880 it was 216,407 gallons, an increase of nearly 300 per cent. The Consul adds:—"This trade may be presumed to see continual augmentation until the American supply fails, or until China so develops as to open its own undoubted sources of supply, which geological and mineral formations suggest as existing."

The Rev. John P. Newman, the distinguished divine and traveler, in his work entitled "Babylon and Nineveh," graphically describes the spread of this American "idea": "The only article imported from the United States and sold in the bazaars of Bagdad is American petroleum. It is entered at the port of Alexandretta, on the Mediterranean, and transported a thousand miles on the backs of camels. It is one of the marvels of this marvelous age, that our petroleum is everywhere to be found in the Levant and the Orient. It lights the dwellings, the temples and mosques amidst the ruins of ancient Babylon and Nineveh. It is the light of Bagdad, the City of the Thousand and One Nights; of Orfah, the birthplace of Abraham; of Mardeen, the Macius of the Romans; and of Damascus, the 'Gem of the Orient.' It burns in the Grotto of the Nativity at Bethlehem, in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem, amidst the Pyramids of Egypt, on the Acropolis of Athens, on the Plains of Troy, and in cottage and palace on the banks of the Bosporus and the Golden Horn. It is the opinion of good judges that a lucrative trade might be established between the United States and the port of Bagdad, via the Persian Gulf. Were the price lessened by a cheaper transportation, American petroleum would find a ready market in the towns on the Persian frontier, and would be thence carried to the villages and cities in the interior of the empire; it would be in general demand in the towns on the Tigris and the Euphrates; and the quantity consumed in Bagdad and the adjacent country would be incalculably increased."

It is positively romantic, the idea that this homely deposit of our Southern California hills may thus, like Wickeliffe's dust,

"Spread abroad, wide as the waters be."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Tombstone's Business Blocks again in Ashes.

The "Nugget" Burned out—The "Epitaph" Damaged—Loss $500,000—Reasons for the Apache Outbreak.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

TOMBSTONE, May 25.—A fire broke out in the rear of the Tivoli Gardens on Allen street this afternoon about half-past three o'clock, and immediately communicated to the surrounding structures. The Grand Hotel and magnificent rooms of the Tombstone Club adjoining were immediately enveloped in flames. The fire spread rapidly, and soon the entire block between Toughnut and Allen streets, and Third and Fourth streets were in flames. The Fire Department fought the flames like heroes, but it was evident from the first that the heart of the city was doomed. The flames spread across Allen street and

DESTROYED THE ENTIRE BLOCK

To Fremont street and again crossed Fourth street, destroying the block bounded by Allen, Fremont, Third and Fourth streets. Here the flames were conquered through the combined aid of firemen, police and deputies under command of Sheriff Behan. The portion of the city destroyed comprised almost the entire business portion. The three principal hotels, the Grand, Cosmopolitan and Brown's, were reduced to ashes. The Nugget newspaper office was completely destroyed, not a type or pound of stock being rescued from the flames. The fire spread

DESTRUCTION AND DESOLATION

All around, but most of the people have pluckily expressed the determination to build immediately. The entire city would have succumbed to the flames were it not for the herculean efforts of Sheriff Behan and Deputy Chief of Police Nagle and our gallant little fire department. The Western Union telegraph office was among the first to hug the flames, but the manager, E. E. Donnelly, at a risk of life, saved the records and instruments, and had established another office in a distant quarter, within an hour. It is impossible at present to estimate the loss, perhaps

HALF A MILLION DOLLARS

Will cover it, but it certainly will not be less. The Epitaph office suffered a loss of something less than $1,000, through break and wear of furniture and material. This newspaper offered the use of all material not in actual use to the Nugget, but the loss of the latter was too complete to attempt an immediate resurrection. The insurance on the property destroyed will foot up about $250,000, but the loss will certainly double that. It will not affect the town, as most of the property destroyed was owned by solid business men who will immediately rebuild.

A CHIEF'S TALK.

The Late Outbreak was Caused by Tiffany's Refusal to Assist Them.

FORT THOMAS, A. T., May 25.—Esketleshelew, Chief of the Coyote Apaches, has visited Col. Albert G. Brackett, of the Third Cavalry, commanding this post, and made in substance the following statement: He wishes the Government to allow his people to go back and live at their old home in the White Mountains, where there is plenty of grass and water for stock raising and where they can farm. He complains that the sub-agency is unhealthy and that the land is unproductive and no water can be had there for farming purposes. All they desire is to be permitted to go where they can make a living, and if they are allowed to return they will not ask the Government for assistance of any kind as they can support themselves by farming, selling hay, grain, and wood to the garrison. They yet have some stock not taken by the hostiles, which will enable them in a few years to have a sufficient number. He also states that he wishes the Military to protect them from Americans, Mexicans, and hostile Indians. The Chief said that he would like to have the President to send him a medal like Grant sent to his brother, Chief Pedro. He desires that Major Randall or some equally good officer command them. Referring to the cause of the Chiricahua outbreak, he said it was caused by agent Tiffany not assisting them to make water ditches to irrigate their land. Two of the Chiefs, Juh and Nelchise, went on two different occasions to Tiffany begging for this assistance in getting out the ditches, and that Tiffany would not reply or give them any satisfaction whatever. This is an important discovery, as it undoubtedly places one of the causes, if not the principal cause, of the outbreak. A council has lately been held by the two white mountain tribes and the Sierra Ancha and Arivipa tribes in which this chief was considered the leading spirit, and his coming to hold council with Colonel Brackett was at the request of the Indian council. He speaks in positive terms that they desire no assistance from the government but protection, and the privilege to cultivate their own lands. This chief stated that he represented fifteen chiefs of different bands of Apaches who had sent him with this message and hence he spoke by authority. There are at present stationed at this post four troops, headquarters and the band of the Third Cavalry, one company of the Twelfth Infantry, and at the sub-post, at the mouth of Ash Creek canyon, thirty miles distant, are two companies of the Sixth Cavalry and one of the First Infantry under command of Col. Schofield. All are under command of Col. Brackett. All is quiet on the San Carlos so far as known. The mountain passes are all guarded.

Suit Against the Central Pacific Managers.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—Elled M. Colton, wife of D. D. Colton, deceased, has brought suit in the Superior Court against Leland Stanford, C. P. Huntington, Charles Crocker and Wells, Fargo & Co. The suit is instituted to set aside a certain agreement made the 29th of August, 1879, whereby Mrs. Colton agreed to assign to defendants, as executrix of deceased, certain stock and bonds of several railroads and steamship companies, of an aggregated estimated value of $1,722,713.75. It is alleged that plaintiff made the assignment through mistake of the actual value of the bonds and stock, and that the consideration for such assignment was that defendants wanted to cancel a promissory note for one million dollars, made by deceased, and that they would pay certain other debts. Plaintiff asks for an accounting between the value of the stocks and bonds, and judgment against the defendants for dividends, and interest on same, now due estate.

A CONSUL DIES.

Emile Christian Grisar, resident Consul for Belgium, died here to-day.

A War of Races Expected.

NEW YORK, May 25. — The Telegram's special from Baton Rouge, La., says a reign of terror exists in St. Martin's parish over the lynching of Joseph E. Jenkins and Eugene Azar, a negro, on the 16th inst. Bands of armed negroes are going about in St. Martinsville swearing vengeance, and a war of races is dreaded. Sixteen of the lynchers have been arrested, and are now in the parish jail. The lynching of the two men was particularly atrocious.

W. E. Willmore, while visiting the American colony tract yesterday with a party, discovered on the beach aligning the property, four single mattresses, a hat, a cap and a lot of boards, scattered along the water line, having just come ashore. It would indicate that there had been a ship wrecked in these waters recently.

A TIMES reporter took a trip yesterday from one end of the city to the other, and as a result of close observation was thoroughly convinced of two important things; first, the number of new buildings of all kinds and sizes being erected is simply wonderful; second, the building boom is not confined to any one part of the city, but extends in every direction, north, south, east, and west. Still the cry is for houses and stores.

A number of Sunday School workers of this city met in the Fort street M. E. An Executive Committee was appointed, consisting of the following named persons: Col. Wells, W. S. Reavis, J. T. Richardson, A. C. Potter, B. F. Coulter and — Stevenson. A County Sunday School Convention will be held in a few weeks, when it is hoped a permanent organization will be effected.

THE YUKON RIVER.

A Los Angeles Expedition Organized to Explore it.

Ed. Schiefflein Determined to find a Second "Tombstone"—A Costly Trip—A Four Years' Voyage.

Certain characteristics are developed in men who achieve notoriety that are similar. Alexander the Great, who sat down on the bank of the Ganges river, and wept because of his ungratified desire to conquer another world, was a prototype in that respect of the character of our fellow-townsman, Edward L. Schiefflein, who after having discovered the Tombstone gold and silver mines in Arizona, which equal the

RICHEST IN THE WORLD,

Has Alexandrian desires to discover again their equal, and this ambition is prompting him to fit out an expedition to explore the Yukon river and its tributaries in the "snowland" of Alaska, in the hopes that upon its frozen shores he may find another Tombstone and Contention that will net him far more than the seven-hundred-thousand dollar profit of his Arizona claims. Mr. Schiefflein was a soldier in Arizona, and while chasing Indians in or near where Tombstone now is he discovered float-rock with strong indications of silver. The officer in command would not allow him to remain and continue the serach for the ledge, but after the Indian depredations of 1877 had quieted down he returned to the vicinity, with a two months'

"GRUB-STAKE"

To hunt the ledge, from which he felt sure the float-rock must come. When his provisions were gone he enlisted the aid of his brother, and they soon found the ledge and located the Tombstone claim. The Contention was soon alongside, and in four years the city of Tombstone has sprung up. Mr. Schiefflein has realized the above-mentioned little sum from his interest there. Having been prospecting for nine years in Nevada and Arizona the old instinct has remained alive. Years ago his attention had been

ATTRACTED TO ALASKA

By the reports of the engineers of the surveying party sent out some time about 1865 by the Western Union Telegraph Company to run a line for cable across Berhing's sea to the mouth of the Anadyr river in Siberia. W. W. Robinson, the present City Clerk, was in one of the Siberian parties employed by this company. The recent reported gold discoveries in various places in Alaska that have been floating down to us from its Arctic clime, also appealed powerfully to Mr. Schiefflein, and accordingly early this spring he took a trip personally to Alaska to satisfy himself in regard to the accuracy of the many rumors. He went as far north as the

NEW AMERICAN SETTLEMENT,

of Harrisburg. Here he found that to get over in the valley of the Yukon, whence came the report of the rich gold findings, and also the rich specimens brought in by the natives, he would have to get Indians to pack provisions some seven or eight hundred miles, and that by the time they would arrive at their destination their provisions would be exhausted, for no man could carry more than what he would need to use himself. He also found that the Hudson Bay Company occupied the valley of the Yukon river, and had therein three forts, two of which were on the river. He also found that the river is navigable for over twelve hundred miles above its mouth in the summer season, and that the company had a small steamer thereon that went up the river in the fall, carrying supplies to trappers, and returned with furs in the spring. Seeing he could do nothing without further help, he returned to San Francisco after a visit of four weeks to the land of snow and ice, and commenced the

BUILDING OF A STEAMER

Forty-five feet long and eighteen feet wide, with which he intends to navigate the chilly waters of the Yukon, and find, if possible, the ledge from whence comes the rich specimens brought to thes ettlement by the natives. So rapid has been the progress on the little boat that it will be launched next Thursday, and a trial trip taken around San Francisco bay. The hull and the machinery with boiler will then be separately stowed on a ship that is chartered to take the little steamer to the mouth of the Yukon river at a cost of three thousand dollars. The boat is built with especial reference to navigation in Arctic waters, and will be fitted most comfortably, and be filled with

FOUR YEARS' PROVISION

For six men, the number to constitute the party. The boat with the four years' fit-out will cost between thirty and forty thousand dollars. They will be provided with every known comfort they can possibly take along, beside mining implements, and assayer's and hunting kits. Effingham L. Schiefflein, his brother, left Los Angeles yesterday afternoon to join him at San Francisco, as they will sail in June. They will be accompanied by four Tombstone miners. As yet they have not been able to secure the company of any scientist. This is a rare chance for some one who is a good surveyor and newspaper correspondent to go with this expedition, and let the world know its results. On arriving at the mouth of the Yukon the boiler and machinery will be put in the little steamer, and American opposition will enliven trade there. The old fossilized Hudson Buy Company will undoubtedly do all they can to retard

AMERICAN ENTERPRILE,

But they will find in Mr. Schiefflein a man who has overcome more obstacles than one, and who will not be the least afraid to invade and explore the lost ground upon which the company stand. They will find another Astor to again distance them in enterprise. After putting the steamer together they will proceed up the Yukon from its mouth, and prospect thoroughly the river and all its great tributaries for gold and silver. The expedition is for four years. If successful before that time they will return and get machinery for mills to catry on a regular mining business. If not successful they will stay out the whole time. As the TIMES reporter bid Mr. Effingham Schiefflein good-bye at the depot yesterday evening and witnessed the farewells between his aged father, relatives and friends, he could not help thinking of the changes that must inevitably come before they would emerge from their self-imprisonment, and wonder whether it would be a Tombstone only in name or a reality that they would find.

Warner Ranch.

Ex-Governor Downey has returned from caring for his business at the Warner ranch. We are gratified to know that his possessions there are in a flourishing condition. The grass has been abundant, and there is dry feed for all the wants of the stock which is cured for the balance of the year. Consequent upon this abundance are fat sheep and a fine wool yield, which the Governor has just had hauled to San Diego for shipment.

Special bargains are offered at the City of Berlin dry goods store. See double column announcement, and call to inspect stock and prices.

THE AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

President Barretto has a Word in Reply to a "Times" Article.

EDITOR TIMES: A copy of your issue of May 5th has just been sent to me, in which I noticed an article headed "A Word in Defense." I have nothing to say as to the amount of money which has been subscribed by the citizens of Los Angeles for the advancement of agricultural and horticultural interests. I presume that a large amount must originally have been spent upon the improvements at Agricultural Park, the grounds are certainly the most beautiful for the purpose in this State, and when laid out, and improved, must have cost considerable money; also, money may have been injudiciously, or, perhaps, recklessly spent, in the management of the association's affairs. Of this I know nothing; it was before my advent into Los Angeles, and I wish to speak only of what I do know; shall confine myself to the last clause of your article, which I quote:

"We learn that the management of the Agricultural Society contemplate, in the event of certain contingencies, holding the fair at some other point this fall, but we consider that if such a step is taken, a great wrong will be done our people."

Now, gentlemen, I have been connected with the present Agricultural Association since its formation, and have done my part in conducting the fairs of 1880 and 1881, and I regret to be obliged to say that I am forced to the conclusion that the citizens of Los Angeles do not take the slightest interest in agricultural or horticultural exhibits, and apparently are quite indifferent as to whether fairs are held in their city or not. This conclusion is arrived at from the lack of attendance of the people of Los Angeles during our two past fairs.

Last fall, for the horticultural department of our fair, we hired Turnverein hall, in which we certainly had a very creditable horticultural exhibit, and I herewith give you the financial result, from which you can draw your own conclusions:

To cash paid for rent of hall, one week	$ 145
To cash paid clerk hire and labor	211.50
To cash paid premiums	249.15
To cash paid for sundry bills, including printing and music,	334.82
To cash paid for exhibit of insects and Standard Soap Co.,	74.00
	$1,014.47
Credit by cash for tickets sold	336.65
Deficit	$ 677.82

The receipts of the first day, including evening, were seventeen dollars, which represents just thirty-four persons in attendance, and the largest receipts for any day and evening were seventy-seven dollars and thirty cents. At the Park during the week we did rather better, but the attendance there was mostly strangers, very few of the people of Los Angeles, not even stockholders, putting in an appearance. From this showing I cannot think that "our people" take much interest in the fairs, or that "a great wrong will be done them" if the fairs are held elsewhere. The Directors of this association do not wish to hold their exhibitions elsewhere than in Los Angeles. The grounds and track are now in the best condition, and we are anxious to hold our annual fairs upon the property, bought by the Association expressly for that purpose, but as business men we must take a business view of this matter, and it would seem worse than folly to make the attempt, in the face of our past experience.

The stockholders here bought and paid for the property, and the association is entirely free of debt, but should we continue holding fairs with similar results, there are but two contingencies, either to follow in the footsteps of our unfortunate predecessors and be sold out by the Sheriff, or the deficiency each year to be made up by the Board of Directors. Respectfully,

F. J. BARRETTO.

FOREST GROVE, Jersey Stock Farm, May 25, 1882.

Returned Home.

Mr. Morris Feintuch, the San Francisco member of the new firm of Feintuch Bros., left for his home on Thursday's train. Mr. Feintuch has been with us but a week or so, but during that time has made many friends for himself, and for the firm, by his cheerful disposition and intelligent business-like habits. We regret his departure from amongst us, but his interest in the firm here, will be very plainly felt in being always ready to supply our fair sex, through the medium of their stock, with any novelty in their line that San Francisco has to offer. Mr. Feintuch expressed himself as being highly pleased with our city, and having every confidence in its prosperity, purposes to show that confidence by investing in the firm, to the extent of all its requirements. We trust the gentleman will soon honor us with another visit, and in the meanwhile join with his many friends in wishing the new firm every prosperity.

Notes from Norwalk.

Stephen Strong, of Norwalk, one of the strongest Republicans in the county, was in town yesterday, and favored a TIMES reporter with an interesting budget of news. The new cheese factory of Johnson, Lombard & Co. is progressing satisfactorily. They now work about 4,000 pounds of milk into cheese daily. The new store is steadily building up a good business. A small hotel in Norwalk would prove a good investment to the right kind of a man. A lumber yard is very much needed also. Geo. Leeper, recently from Iowa, has purchased forty acres of improved land with a small house on it, between Norwalk and Artesia, for $1,200. In some portions of the country around Norwalk the grain crop will be very good, in others fair, but in some places will only make hay. However, the farmers are well satisfied, as the crop exceeds their anticipations. Mr. Strong has some fields of barley that equal the best he ever had. The prospect for an abundant crop of deciduous fruits of all kinds is excellent, and the grape yield will be equal to the best ever known. Taken altogether the outlook is very promising and the farmers are in high spirits.

Passengers by the Ancon.

The steamer Ancon sailed from San Francisco yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, with the following passengers for Los Angeles: Mrs. L. C. Dunn, H. Mier, F. Caldwin, Flora Figg, Thos. Philips, J. H. Hall, F. W. Potts, Miss O. Wetmore, Jos. Rich, Chas. Alberts, S. Shirpzer, M. F. Hinkle, C. F. Wadman, Jas. J. Flaherty, Mrs. C. Stacy, Chas. Pridham, Mollie Coffman, E. Ohlfsen, J. H. Steinart.

Episcopal Social.

The ladies of the Episcopal Society will give one of their always enjoyable socials at Baker Block this (Friday) evening. Admission, including cake and lemonade, twenty-five cents. Ice cream extra.

SANTA ANA AHEAD.

The Temperance Mass Meeting a Grand Success.

Unanimous Expression in Favor of Law and Order—A "Champion" Hissed by his Own Friends.

EDITOR TIMES: The meeting in Temple hall last night in regard to the Sunday law, was the most enthusiastic one of the kind that your corre spondent has witnessed since his resid ence here.

The hall was filled almost to its full capacity. Many of Santa Ana's most intelligent and wealthy people being present.

There were also present a small sprinkling of the opposition. The discussion was the order of the evening.

On Tuesday afternoon it was discovered that a movement was on foot, by the opponents of law, to thwart, or subvert the object upon which the meeting was called.

Little bills were scattered all over the town, to the effect that one J. S. Hayfork, "The Workingmen's Champion," would address the meeting at night. The committee, therefore, anticipating a "bulldozing," paid the hall rent in advance, and took a receipt for the money.

Rev. E. Dunbar was called to the chair and after briefly stating the object of the meeting, viz. the discussion of the Sunday law, he invited the people to freely express their views upon the subject. There was some hesitancy at first, but presently the ball was opened by a gentleman whose name is unknown to the writer. He made a few appropriate remarks in favor of law and order, and the so-called "Champion" in great gusto arose. His towering form (he stands four feet two and a half in his socks) could be seen looming up full two inches above the chair against which he was leaning. His eyes flashed fire—he had been drinking (liquid) fire I presume—and his massive head seemed to expand to make more room for the giant intellect that lives "in there." He opened up with one of the most ridiculous and nonsensical tirades upon religion and church-going people that it has ever been your correspondent's misfortune to listen to. He said if the preachers went to 'eaven he did not want to go to 'eaven, but if there was such a place as 'ell he wanted to go to 'ell. The writer tried to take notes at first, but the "speech" was altogether too disgusting and irreligious to be even written in a note-book, much less to be sent through the mails for publication. The time of each speaker had been limited to ten minutes, but the "Champion" would not sit down, and kept speaking out of order and interrupting, till he was finally hissed out of the hall by his own followers. There was also another "champion" present, of teutonic extraction, whom I shall designate as Mr. Beerlager. He "rose to explain," and after he had disposed his stomach so that it would not interfere with the people in the next seat in front of him, he said: "Mr. Bresident, dot Suntay law vas some goot tings. Und Mr Bresident we shust vant der laws opeyed efry times, don't it? And Mr. Bresident ve vants some laws mit all der beoples mit boarding houses, shoe stores, und try-goot stores, and smithblackshops, and eferytings like saloons already. Der poor saloonkeeper he must make some money mit his lager peer, and his ginger schnapps, and sausage,, und; und—" He sat down amid the jeer, and groans of the audience, and mistaking the demonstration for applause, he patted his capacious stomach approvingly, and remarked: "Dot vus von pully speech, ain't it?" With the two exceptions above named the meeting was orderly, and quite a number of the citizens of Santa Ana and vicinity expressed their views, and came out boldly and emphatically in favor of the law. Not only were they in favor of the present Sabbath law, but urged the people to use their influence and their votes to secure amendments to the law so that it can be enforced. The meeting was a grander success than the most sanguine of us had anticipated. Before the meeting adjourned it was moved and seconded that a vote be taken upon the question—the Sunday law—and almost before the chairman had time to put the motion, two hundred hands were raised in favor of the law. The noes were called and but one hand went up and that was withdrawn before the chairman saw it. We are jubilant. We are enthusiastic. And I verily believe that after the public expression given last night in favor of law and order that real estate will advance ten per cent. We can now invite newcomers to a law loving and a law abiding community.

GARDEN GROVE.

A Lecture—Arrivals—Festival—Improvements, etc.

GARDEN GROVE, May 23, 1882.

"Against stupidity the gods themselves contend in vain." We are astounded to find that some of our voters are anxious to pin a tax upon themselves which will keep them in debt for seven years, in order to build a school-house containing three rooms—the third to be used as a hall, but which will be so small that it will be inadequate to the population before the time of the redemption of the proposed bonds.

We had the pleasure of an interview with Mr. and Mrs. J. McKelvy, our latest acquisition to Garden Grove. Their home is in Rhode Island, but they have been compelled to travel on account of the ill-health of a son, who has been afflicted with asthma, which disease has almost succumbed to the mild influences of this delightful climate.

We are pained to learn that Mr. Samuel King is dangerously ill. Mr. King has been ailing for some months past, in consequence of which he has lived in the mountains in the vicinity of his mine, his friends hoping he might recuperate. We understand that an effort is being made to remove him to his home in this place.

We are to have a strawberry festival at the Methodist church on the 28th inst. We are assured of patronage from all who have once heard the sweet voice of Miss Whitman, who will sing to us on that occasion.

Mr. Andre is putting up a house and having an artesian well bored on his place, opposite Mr. Bessonett's, and Mr. Smith is building a pretty cottage near town. Mr. Witham is working on windmills yet, hoping thereby to "raise the wind." Mr. Martin has gone to Sacramento.

A party of our young people have gone to Laguna to camp and gather the beautiful shells which abound at this season.

Mrs. Jones, who has been quite ill, is convalescent.

LA FERMETE.

SOCIAL AT FLORENCE.

The Ladies' Aid Society Arrange an Enjoyable Affair.

On Tuesday evening, the 23d inst, a goodly number of the Florence people who are noted for their genial and social natures, met at the residence of Mr. Serrott's, on the occasion of a monthly social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of that enterprising little burg. After the genial hostess, Mrs. Serrott, had cordially welcomed the company and the usual greetings and introductions, Rev. Mr. Hough announced the literary and musical part of the programme. Miss Baker presided at the organ and several songs and literary exercises were well executed. An interesting paper called the Evening Star was read by Mrs. Thomas, creating considerable amusement and referring to a late marriage in the place intimated that it did not seem right for the young gentlemen to send East for their better halves when there were so many fair ones in their midst. After the musical and literary exercises were over an abundance of cakes and oranges were passed around which received considerable attention and seemed to suit the palates of the partakers remarkably well. A good time was had all around and the occasion seemed to eliven all concerned.

Westminster Dots.

A. Kell has just returned from a trip to the Laguna on a visit to his stock ranch. His eighty-two head of stock are in fine condition, owing to the luxuriant and abundant grasses in that section. The crop of hay in this vicinity surpasses all expectation, but the crop of barley will be light. Light showers of rain fell here on Wednesday afternoon and night; also on Thursday morning, resulting in no particular damage however. The average shipments of eggs from Westminster to Los Angeles have reached 1,000 dozen per week for some time past, also 1,000 pounds of butter.

John Pearce, of lower Artesia, has just had one of Witham's Garden Grove Windmills put up on his place The pump now throws a stream equal to a 1½ inch well.

The much needed bridge over Coyote creek, on the road to Westminster, seems as far from realization as ever. When will the county Supervisors attend to it?

SOMERSET'S SORROWS.

The Case Partially Examined Yesterday Before Justice Fisher.

The examination yesterday of Billy Somerset on the charge of embezzlement came off yesterday afternoon before Justice Fisher. The court room was like Uncle Tom's Cabin, only standing room left. Mrs. Thayer was present. She is a petite brune, and has such an innocent look that it hardly seems posible that she would commit a crime. Her husband, Fred. Thayer, was examined. He is accounted one of the best locomotive engineers on the Southern Pacific Railroad. He testified he had been giving his wife $250 every two months to use what she wanted and deposit the balance. The Court took a recess at 5 P. M. till to-day. H. T. Gage was Somerset's counsel, and Colonel Godfrey was assisting the prosecution. Gage filed a demurrer, which Judge Fisher overruled, and an exception was noted.

Mrs. Hopkinson went out of the kindergarten business a short time since, but from an item elsewhere it seems she is into it again. It is a ten-pound boy, and the first we know it will be assisting Father Hopkinson in circulating the TIMES.

As per announcement in new to-day, Mr. U. F. May has sold his interest in the Yreka Bakery and lunch room to Mr. B. F. Wood who will carry on the business at the old stand.

See notice elsewhere of lots for sale in Schiller and Fairmount tracts. These lots are cheap, accessible, and sold on easy terms. Those seeking cheap home sites should inspect these lots at once.
